S. B. No. 813—A bill to be entitled An Act to amend Section 372.82, Florida Statutes, 1941, relating to the powers, and duties of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission; repealing conflicting laws and fixing effective date.

Which was read the first time by title only and referred to the Committee on Game and Fisheries.

By Senator Collins—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 814:

WHEREAS, in 1912, pursuant to Chapter 6131, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1911, there was erected in Tallahassee, Florida, a building to be known as "THE SUPREME COURT, RAILROAD COMMISSION AND LIBRARY BUILDING" to house the Supreme Court, the Railroad Commission and the Law Library of the Supreme Court, and

WHEREAS, said building, since its erection, has been occupied by the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court Law Library, and the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission, formerly the Railroad Commission, and during said period said building has come to be known as "The Supreme Court Building", and

WHEREAS, there was erected in 1948 a new building in the Capitol Center in Tallahassee known as "The Supreme Court Building" to house the Supreme Court and its Law Library, and

WHEREAS, the new Supreme Court Building is now being occupied by said Court and Library, and the Old Supreme Court Building continues to be occupied by the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission, pursuant to Section 350.06, Florida Statutes, 1941, which requires the Commission to maintain its office in "the Supreme Court Building in the city of Tallahassee" without further designation of said building, and

WHEREAS, the designation of one building as the Old Supreme Court Building and the other as the New Supreme Court Building is resulting in confusion and inconvenience, which should be corrected by renaming the Old Supreme Court Building, and

WHEREAS, the late JAMES BRYAN WHITFIELD was until his death in 1948 an honored and beloved citizen of this State, having served his state faithfully and in an outstanding manner for more than sixteen years as County Judge of Leon County, Clerk of the Supreme Court, State Treasurer and Attorney General, and

WHEREAS, the said JAMES BRYAN WHITFIELD was elevated to the Supreme Court of Florida in 1904 and served with distinction as a Justice of that Court for thirty-nine years until his retirement in 1943. Judge Whitfield served as Chief Justice of said Court for three terms. His tenure as Justice of said Court was the longest in the history of the Court. Judge Whitfield's culture, his profound learning, and his simple urbanity constantly drew Governors, Legislators, Cabinet Members, and Judges to him for counsel and through them and his opinions, he had more to do with directing the current of the law than any single person in the history of the state, and

WHEREAS, more than thirty years of Judge Whitfield's tenure on the Supreme Court was spent in the Old Supreme Court Building in Tallahassee, which building he helped to design, and

WHEREAS, it would be fitting and proper that said building should bear Judge Whitfield's name as a tribute to his memory and the great and important contributions he made to the State of Florida, NOW THEREFORE

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING:

Section 1. The Board of Commissioners of State Institutions, be and the same is hereby requested to formally designate and re-name the State building located in Tallahassee, Florida, erected in 1912, pursuant to Chapter 6131, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1911, and presently known as the Old Supreme Court Building, as "THE WHITFIELD BUILDING" in honor and memory of the late Justice James Bryan Whitfield.

Nays—5

Beall	Leaird	Sturgis
Collins	Shivers

So Senate Bill No. 204 passed, title as stated, and the action of the Senate was ordered certified to the House of Representatives.

Senate Bills Nos. 359 and 336 were taken up in their order and the consideration thereof was informally passed.

The President now presiding.

S. B. No. 143—A bill to be entitled An Act prohibiting the sales of merchandise below cost; defining terms used in the Act and providing for the enforcement thereof by criminal proceedings and suits for injunction.

Was taken up in its order.

Senator Walker moved that the rules be waived and Senate Bill No. 143 be read the second time by title only.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Bill No. 143 was read the second time by title only.

The Committee on Judiciary "B" offered the following amendment to Senate Bill No. 143:

In Section 7, last sentence (typewritten bill) strike out the words: "It shall not be necessary for the plaintiff in any action under this chapter to provide or file any bond for issuance of temporary injunction or final injunction."

Senator Walker moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The Committee on Judiciary "B" also offered the following amendment to Senate Bill No. 143:

In Section 5 (typewritten bill), to be added as sub-paragraph (j):

(j) Where tangible personal property is sold at retail or wholesale under any of the exceptions (a) to (i), both inclusive, set forth above with the exception of items under (h) and (b) any advertisement of such items made by any wholesaler or retailer shall, if the advertisements contain a mention of the price of the items, described said items as being sold under designated exceptions by pertinent words referring to the reason for such sale below costs.

Senator Walker moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

The Committee on Judiciary "B" also offered the following amendment to Senate Bill No. 143:

In Section 2, add a new paragraph to read as follows:

10. Wherever any wholesaler or any retailer sells or offers for sale any tangible property which is manufactured by or for such wholesaler or by or for such retailer, or is manufactured under the same general management, supervision, control or ownership as that of such manufacturer or as that of such retailer, whether such ownership, management, supervision or control is direct or indirect, and whether mediate or immediate or is accomplished through stock ownership in one or more corporations, trusteeship, or by any device whatsoever, the essential test being that such tangible property is manufactured by or for the same interests as control to direct the retailer and/or wholesaler as the case may be, then in such instances, the term cost to the retailer or cost to the wholesaler shall mean and be taken as actual manufacturing costs, plus freight or transportation charges from the place of manufacture to such retailer or wholesaler as the case may be plus 10 percent, or the cost of the nearest independent manufactured like article generally sold in the community where the retailer or wholesaler is offering the item for sale. Wherever interlocking relations of ownership or management exist between the retailer or wholesaler and the manufacturer or producer of any tangible personal property offered for sale by such retailer and/or wholesaler and where the terms of this section shall apply, then such retailer and/or wholesaler shall, upon the written request of any competitor, furnish and certify to such person, firm or corporation making such request a statement of the cost of manufacture of such article, and the cost of transportation to the place of business or businesses of such wholesaler or retailer and shall state whether such article is priced in accordance with cost plus transportation, plus 10% mark-up or upon a comparable basis and if upon a comparable basis such statement shall set forth and describe the article upon which any comparable price is fixed.

Senator Walker moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Walker moved that the rules be further waived and Senate Bill No. 143, as amended, be read the third time in full and put upon its passage.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote.

And Senate Bill No. 143, as amended, was read the third time in full.

Pending roll call on the passage of Senate Bill No. 143, as amended, Senator Baynard moved that the hour of adjournment be extended until final disposition of Senate Bill No. 143, as amended.

Which was agreed to by a two-thirds vote and it was so ordered.

Upon the passage of Senate Bill No. 143, as amended, the roll was called and the vote was:

Yeas—23
